All deposits are to be made by cash, credit card (MasterCard, VISA or Discover Card ONLY) for the required down payment ONLY, postal money order or bank check (cashiers or tellers check), made payable to "Clinton County Treasurer." The Purchaser paying by credit card(s) agrees that they shall NOT attempt a charge back on their credit card(s) used in this/these transaction(s) for any reason whatsoever. In such event that a charge back is initiated by Purchaser and that such attempt is upheld in favor of Auctioneer/Clinton County, Purchaser agrees and authorizes to compensate Auctioneer with a $750.00 recovery fee as a new charge to their credit card(s) without requiring additional Purchaser signature(s). Failure to pay such recovery fee will result in collection action against said Purchaser(s).

3. All required deposits must be paid in full for all successful bids immediately upon being declared the successful bidder. Live Bidders, upon being declared the high bidder on a parcel, will immediately go to the contract table and execute the Contract of Sale and remit the required deposit.

4. Any high bidder who fails to submit the required down payment or complete the purchase will be prohibited from participating in auctions conducted by Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc. for a period of five years. Clinton County reserves the right to take legal action against this high bidder, should such a default occur. If the purchaser fails to pay the balance of the total contract price plus closing costs and fees as herein provided, the deposit shall be forfeited. The County reserves the right to bring an action for specific performance. "Time is of the essence." If purchaser does not complete and return the transfer documents needed to file the deed, the purchaser forfeits their rights to the property and will not receive a refund.

5. At the time of bidder registration, the purchaser shall provide information necessary to complete, and shall execute, the necessary forms and documents required for recording the deed in the County Clerk's Office. Bidders are required to register and provide suitable government identification such as a driver's license or passport at registration. Auctioneer reserves the right to decline registration if identification is not sufficient. Individuals acting on behalf of others (including spouses), not in attendance at the auction, must produce a "Full Power of Attorney" duly executed and notarized, copy of driver's license and social security number to complete necessary forms. Entities such as corporations, limited partnerships, limited liability companies, etc. are required to provide AT REGISTRATION: 1) a copy of the state entity incorporation filing receipt, 2) EIN number and 3) a corporate resolution duly embossed with incorporation seal authorizing the registrant to purchase real property for said entity. NO EXCEPTIONS.

6. The purchaser may not assign his/her right to complete the sale. ALL DEEDS SHALL BE EXECUTED SOLELY IN THE NAME OF THE BIDDER (AND SPOUSE, IF REQUESTED) REGISTERED AT THE AUCTION. Purchaser is responsible for ensuring the proper spelling of their name(s) on the sales contract. Once the sales contract is signed, no corrections will be made and the deed will reflect the name(s) on the sales contract. SPOUSE MUST BE PRESENT AT AUCTION TO BE ADDED TO THE DEED.

7. Sale of County-owned properties shall be as follows: (1) in the event that the high bid on a parcel meets or exceeds the minimum bid price (minimum bid price is the amount of back taxes owed) established by Clinton County, and otherwise fully complies with the terms and conditions of sale, the sale of such parcel shall be final and absolute and will not be subject to confirmation by Clinton County; (2) in the event that the high bid on a parcel is less than the minimum bid price established by Clinton County, and otherwise fully complies with the terms and conditions of sale, the sale of such parcel shall be subject to confirmation by the Clinton County Legislature before such sale shall be final; and (3) in the event that the successful high bidder refuses to complete purchase of any parcel sold at an auction, the second highest bidder of that parcel shall be offered the opportunity to purchase the parcel at the amount of the second highest bid plus the buyer's premium, closing costs and fees, and such other amounts due under these Terms and Conditions of Auction, and subject to approval under subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

8. In the event the successful bidder is the previous owner, or lienholder, the purchase price cannot be less than the total amount of taxes owed at the time Clinton County took title to the parcel.

9. Clinton County will notify purchaser when all required documents necessary to complete the sale and transfer of any and all parcels purchased at the auction have been prepared. Within 30 days of the auction, the entire balance of the purchase price, plus the buyer's premium and closing costs/fees shall be paid. Credit card payment is NOT acceptable for balance due. All payments must be made by cash, postal money order or bank check. If purchaser fails to pay the entire balance prescribed within the aforesaid 30 days, all deposit(s) made will be forfeited. A purchaser who fails or has failed to pay any balance due, resulting in default at this auction or any previous Clinton County auction, will not be allowed to bid at this or any future auction for Clinton County for a period of five (5) years.

10. Conveyance shall be by quitclaim deed only, containing a description of the property as it appeared on the tax roll for the year upon which the County acquired title. The deed will be recorded by the County upon payment in full of the purchase price, buyer's premium, and closing fees/costs. POSSESSION OF THE PROPERTY IS FORBIDDEN UNTIL THE DEED IS RECORDED WITH THE CLINTON COUNTY CLERK CONVEYING TITLE TO THE PURCHASER. TITLE VESTS AT THE RECORDING OF THE DEED. It is agreed between the County and the Purchaser that delivery and acceptance of the deed occurs upon recording of the deed. No action on the property is allowed until the deed is filed.

11. The Clinton County Treasurer will send a letter to the High Bidder outlining clerk fees due on property purchase(s): (1) Filing Fee for the Real Property Transfer Report [$125.00 plus $50.00 surcharge if the parcels classification code is 100-199, 200-299 or 411-C; $250.00 plus $50.00 surcharge for all parcels otherwise classified]; (2) filing fee for TP-584 [$5.00], additional owners, after 2, will be charged $1.00 per owner; and (3) Notice of Conveyance-Fraud $10.00 (on residential deed recordings), if applicable.

12. All real property, including any buildings thereon, are sold "AS IS" and without any representation or warranty whatsoever as to condition or title, and subject to: (a) any state of facts an accurate, survey or personal inspection of the premises would disclose; (b) applicable zoning/land use/building regulations of the village and/or town the property is in as well as any regulations of the APA or NYS.; (c) Federal and/or State taxes, liens, judgments, and encumbrances of record; (d) easements, covenants, conditions and rights-of-way of record existing at the time of the levy of the tax, the non-payment of which resulted in the tax foreclosure in which Clinton County acquired title; (e) any unknown environmental issues, including but not limited to asbestos, wasteland or wetlands designations, spills, contamination, bedrock, etc.; and (f) all outstanding school and village taxes, past due and present water and sewer rents, assessments, and any demolition or "cleanup" charges, without pro-ration whatsoever. Bidders who are bidding on properties that have or have had motor fuel (or gasoline, whichever you think is more appropriate) tanks on or in them, are advised to contact the DEC for any possible site contamination or open cases.

13. All purchasers are advised to personally inspect the premises and to examine title to premises prior to the date upon which the sale is scheduled to take place. Personal inspection must be coordinated through Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc. entrance upon any parcel without an employee of Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc. constitutes trespass pursuant to the laws of New York State.

14. Notice is hereby given that the premises being sold may lie within an Agricultural District as designated upon the tax map. It is the sole responsibility of any bidder to ascertain which specific parcel(s) is so designated and these are sold subject to the provisions of law applicable thereto.

15. No personal property is included in the sale of any of the parcels owned by Clinton County. The disposition of any personal property located on any parcel sold shall be the sole responsibility of the successful purchaser following the closing of sale.

16. Evictions, if necessary, are solely the responsibility of the successful bidder after closing and recording of the deed.

17. Clinton County acquired title to these properties in accordance with Article 11, as the case may be, of the Real Property Tax Law of the State of New York, and all known rights of redemption under said provisions of law have been extinguished by the tax sale proceeding; and/or as a result of forfeiture.

18. The purchaser shall be solely responsible for the payment of all taxes levied against the property subsequent to transfer of title to Clinton County.

19. Real Property Tax Law authorizes the imposition of a pro-rata liability on formerly exempt property transferred to a non-exempt owner after taxable status date. The property purchased at the tax foreclosure is exempt at the time of purchase (county-owned). Upon transfer of title, the exemption ceases, and each tax levying unit, county, town and village are due taxes for the remaining portion of the year. On a subsequent tax roll, county/town, the purchaser of the property will receive an additional bill for these taxes. This entire process is subject to administrative review. Further information can be found in New York Real Property Tax Law, Sections 520, 551 and 553.

20. NO PERSON OR ORGANIZATION CAN BID ON PROPERTIES AT THE AUCTION IF THEY, OR A CORPORATION OR COMPANY THEY ARE AFFILIATED WITH, OWE PROPERTY TAXES (CURRENT YEAR OR PRIOR YEAR) TO CLINTON COUNTY. ALL TAX LIABILITIES MUST BE PAID PRIOR TO THE AUCTION IN ORDER TO BID AT THE AUCTION. Failure to comply with this provision will be grounds for default and forfeiture of any deposits paid.

21. By acknowledging and executing these Terms & Conditions, the purchaser certifies that he/she is not representing or acting as proxy for the former owner(s) of the property against whom Clinton County foreclosed, or anyone previously prohibited from participation in auctions, and has no intent to defraud Clinton County of the unpaid taxes, assessment, penalties and charges which have been levied against the property. The purchaser agrees that neither he/she nor his/her assigns shall convey the property to the former owner(s) against whom Clinton County foreclosed within 24 months subsequent to the auction date and, if such conveyance occurs, the purchaser understands that he/she may be found to have committed a fraud and/or intent to defraud and will be liable for any deficiency between the purchase price at the auction and such sums as may be owed to Clinton County as related to the foreclosure on the property and consents to immediate judgment by Clinton County for said amounts.

22. All sales shall be final, absolute and without recourse, and in no event shall Clinton County, Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc., be or become liable for any defects in title for any cause whatsoever, and no claim, demand or suit of any nature shall exist in favor of the purchaser, its heirs, successors or assigns, against Clinton County, Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc., arising from this sale.

23. In the event that the sale of a parcel is cancelled by Court Order or judgment; OR the entirety of the auction is cancelled by the Clinton County Legislature, the successful bidder shall be entitled only to a refund of the purchase money. Purchaser shall not be entitled to special or consequential damages, nor attorney fees, nor reimbursement for any expenses incurred as a result of ownership or improvements of the property nor for taxes paid during the period of ownership.

24. The auctioneer's decision regarding any disputes is final and the auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid that is not an appreciable advancement over the preceding bid.

25. Anyone deemed by the Auctioneer to be intentionally obstructing the business of the auction may be ordered removed by the Auctioneer.

26. All informational tools, such as slides, tax maps, photos, auction listings, auction catalogs, auction signs, property record cards, etc. are for identification purposes only and are neither a guarantee nor a warranty as to location, dimensions, parcel use and/or size, or anything else. THE COUNTY AND ABSOLUTE AUCTIONS & REALTY, INC. MAKE NO WARRANTY, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, IN CONNECTION WITH THIS SALE.

27. The successful purchaser on each auction parcel must remove the auction sign within two (2) days of receipt of the deed to the parcel as provided for herein.

28. People holding the following positions are precluded from bidding at the Clinton County Auction: a) Assessors, Board of Assessment Review members, and Town Supervisor and Town Board members within their own municipal jurisdiction; as well as b) The following Clinton County Officials: Treasurer, Legislators, Administrator, Attorney, Clerk, and Real Property Director.

29. No person or entity (or a person having more than a 10% interest in an entity) that has previously purchased property at a Clinton County In Rem Foreclosure Auction and had said property foreclosed upon by Clinton County in subsequent years may bid at a Clinton County In Rem Foreclosure Auction for a period of five (5) years after the date of said foreclosure, with the exception of a property in the current year's auction that is the primary residence of said person.

A new state law has imposed new requirements for certain real estate transfer tax filings. Effective September 13, 2019, when a limited liability company (LLC) is the grantor or grantee in a deed transfer of a one- to four-family residence or a residential condominium, the following forms cannot be accepted for filing unless accompanied by documentation that identifies the names and business addresses of all members, managers and other authorized persons of the LLC:

- Form TP-584, Combined Real Estate Transfer Tax Return, Credit Line Mortgage Certificate, and Certification of Exemption from the Payment of Estimated Personal Income Tax; and
- Form TP-584-NYC, Combined Real Estate Transfer Tax Return, Credit Line Mortgage Certificate, and Certification of Exemption from the Payment of Estimated Personal Income Tax for the Conveyance of Real Property Located in New York City

The required documentation must include a list of all members, managers and other authorized persons of the LLC. If any member of the LLC is itself an LLC or other business entity, the names and addresses of the shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and/or partners of that LLC or other business entity must also be provided until ultimate ownership by natural persons is disclosed.

The documentation should include the name, business address and taxpayer identification number for each individual and entity. In addition, documentation should demonstrate that 100% of the ownership of each entity has been reported.

Authorized person means a person, whether or not a member, who is authorized by the operating agreement, or otherwise, to act on behalf of an LLC or foreign LLC.

Natural person means a human being, as opposed to an artificial person, who is the beneficial owner of the real property. A natural person does not include a corporation or partnership, natural person(s) operating a business under a d/b/a (doing business as), an estate (such as the estate of a bankrupt or deceased person), or a trust.

Form TP-584 (7/19) and Form TP-584-NYC (7/19) and their corresponding instructions will be revised to instruct filers of this new requirement. However, in the meantime, the required documentation should be included as an attachment to the existing form.

New York State Disclosure Form for Buyer and Seller

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

New York State law requires real estate licensees who are acting as agents of buyers or sellers of property to advise the potential buyers or sellers with whom they work of the nature of their agency relationship and the rights and obligations it creates. This disclosure will help you to make informed choices about your relationship with the real estate broker and its sales agents.

Throughout the transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form. The law may require each agent assisting in the transaction to present you with this disclosure form. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate.

If you need legal, tax or other advice, consult with a professional in that field.

Disclosure Regarding Real Estate Agency Relationships

Seller's Agent

A seller's agent is an agent who is engaged by a seller to represent the seller's interests. The seller's agent does this by securing a buyer for the seller's home at a price and on terms acceptable to the seller. A seller's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the seller: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A seller's agent does not represent the interests of the buyer. The obligations of a seller's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the seller. In dealings with the buyer, a seller's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of property, except as otherwise provided by law.

Buyer's Agent

A buyer's agent is an agent who is engaged by a buyer to represent the buyer's interest. The buyer's agent does this by negotiating the purchase of a home at a price and on terms acceptable to the buyer. A buyer's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the buyer: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A buyer's agent does not represent the interest of the seller. The obligations of a buyer's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the buyer. In dealings with the seller, a buyer's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the buyer's ability and/or willingness to perform a contract to acquire seller's property that are not inconsistent with the agent's fiduciary duties to the buyer.

Broker's Agents

A broker's agent is an agent that cooperates or is engaged by a listing agent or a buyer's agent (but does not work for the same firm as the listing agent or buyer's agent) to assist the listing agent or buyer's agent in locating a property to sell or buy, respectively, for the listing agent's seller or the buyer agent's buyer. The broker's agent does not have a direct relationship with the buyer or seller and the buyer or seller cannot provide instructions or direction directly to the broker's agent. The buyer and the seller therefore do not have vicarious liability for the acts of the broker's agent. The listing agent or buyer's agent do provide direction and instruction to the broker's agent and therefore the listing agent or buyer's agent will have liability for the acts of the broker's agent.

Dual Agent

A real estate broker may represent both the buyer and the seller if both the buyer and seller give their informed consent in writing. In such a dual agency situation, the agent will not be able to provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer and seller. The obligations of an agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent, and the buyer and seller. An agent acting as a dual agent must explain carefully to both the buyer and seller that the agent is acting for the other party as well. The agent should also explain the possible effects of dual representation, including that by consenting to the dual agency relationship the buyer and seller are giving up their right to undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship before agreeing to such representation. A seller or buyer may provide advance informed consent to dual agency by indicating the same on this form.

Dual Agent with Designated Sales Agents

- Discriminate based on any protected characteristic because it is the preference of a seller or landlord.
- Discriminate by "steering" which occurs when a real estate professional guides prospective buyers or renters towards or away from certain neighborhoods, locations or buildings, based on any protected characteristic.
- Discriminate by "blockbusting" which occurs when a real estate professional represents that a change has occurred or may occur in future in the composition of a block, neighborhood or area, with respect to any protected characteristics, and that the change will lead to undesirable consequences for that area, such as lower property values, increase in crime, or decline in the quality of schools.
- Discriminate by pressuring a client or employee to violate the Law.
- Express any discrimination because of any protected characteristic by any statement, publication, advertisement, application, inquiry or any Fair Housing Law record.
