The "buyer's premium" is the fee/commission earned by the auctioneer. Accepted purchase price is the amount bid by the highest bidder, which has been approved by the Sullivan County Legislature.

19. The former owner of the property, or his agent, shall be permitted to bid at the auction of the parcel formerly owned by them. However, the former owner will be required to pay the bid price or repurchase price (as well as all associated fees set forth above), whichever is greater. The "repurchase price" is defined in Chapter 164 of the Sullivan County Code. If the former owner or his agent reacquires the property, all liens existing prior to the foreclosure, will be reinstated and the purchaser (former owner) must sign the deed to confirm same.

20. 20% or $1,000 of the total contract price (total contract price is the combination of the high bid and the buyer's premium, as defined in paragraph 19 of these terms and conditions), whichever is higher, shall be paid as a down payment on the day of the auction upon execution of an Offer to Purchase Form. Total contract prices selling for $1,000.00 or less must be paid in full at the auction, including all closing costs will be paid with the down payment on the day of the auction for each parcel, to wit: (a) New York State Transfer Tax [$2.00 for each $500.00 of the purchase/bid price]; (b) Filing fee for the Real Property Transfer Report [$125.00 if the parcels classification code is 100-199, 200-299 or 411-C; $250.00 for all parcels otherwise classified]; (c) Filing Fee for combined Gains Transfer Tax Affidavit [$5.00]; (d) all fees required by the Sullivan County Clerk for recording of the deed [$50.00 to record a one page deed; $5.00 for each additional page]; and (e) a $20.00 surcharge. Closing costs may be subject to an increase in fees as required by law, without notice. All deposits must be made by credit card (Master Card, Discover Card or Visa), cash or guaranteed funds (bank check/tellers check/cashier's check) payable to the "Sullivan County Treasurer" and drawn on banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). No exceptions. Wire transfers will not be accepted. In such event that a charge back is initiated by Purchaser and that such attempt is upheld in favor of Auctioneer/Sullivan County, Purchaser agrees and authorizes to compensate Auctioneer with a $750.00 recovery fee as a new charge to their credit card(s) without requiring additional Purchaser signature(s). Failure to pay such recovery fee will result in collection action against said Purchaser(s).

AFTER THE AUCTION

21. All bids shall be subject to approval by the Sullivan County Legislature, which shall have the right, in the Legislature's sole discretion, to reject any bid for any reason whatsoever.

22. The entire balance of the accepted purchase price, the buyer's premium, as defined in paragraph 18 of these terms and conditions, and all closing costs/fees including all taxes, costs and fee referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 must be paid by credit card (Master Card or Visa and subject to an additional fee), cash or guaranteed funds payable to and received by the Sullivan County Treasurer's Office on or before December 19, 2025. The County is not required to send further notice to a purchaser. If the purchaser fails to pay the balance of the total contract price plus closing costs and fees as herein provided, the deposit shall be forfeited. The County reserves the right to bring an action for specific performance. "Time is of the essence." If purchaser does not complete and return the transfer documents required to file the deed, the purchaser forfeits their rights to the property and will not receive a refund.

23. Purchasers of residential, improved properties will reimburse the County $50.00 at the "closing" in those cases where the County has installed smoke alarm and carbon monoxide detectors.

24. All parcels for which you are the highest bidder must be paid pursuant to these Terms. There will be no selective closings. Failure to remit full payment on all parcels for which you are the successful bidder will result in a forfeiture of all monies tendered, and you will not be permitted to close on any other parcels for which you were the successful bidder.

25. If a Successful Bidder owes any delinquent taxes to Sullivan County, those delinquent taxes must be paid in full prior to closing on any purchases made at this auction. Any installment agreement must not be in default. Failure to comply with this provision will result in the forfeiture of any deposits paid.

26. If the successful bidder fails to tender such amount due by the close of business on December 19, 2025, then the County may, but is not obligated to offer any unsold property to the second highest bidder. All terms and conditions for the sale set forth herein above shall apply to the second highest bidder and/or any other purchaser.

27. In the event that a sale is cancelled by court order or judgment, the successful bidder shall be entitled only to a refund of any deposits paid with interest at 3%. If the bid is rejected by the Sullivan County Legislature, any refund will be returned without interest. Purchasers agree that they shall not be entitled to special or consequential damages, attorney's fees; reimbursement for any expenses incurred as a result of ownership, improvements made to the property or for taxes paid during period of ownership.

28. All sales shall be final, absolute and without recourse once title has closed and the deed has been recorded. In no event, shall Sullivan County and/or Absolute Auctions & Realty be or become liable for any defects in title for any cause whatsoever, and no claim, demand or suit of any nature shall exist in favor of the purchaser, its heirs, successors or assigns, arising from this sale and conveyance.

29. Conveyance shall be by quitclaim deed only, containing a description of the property as it appeared on the tax roll for the year upon which the County acquired title or as corrected up to date of deed. The deed will be recorded by the County upon payment in full of the accepted purchase price, buyer's premium, and closing fees/costs. POSSESSION OF PROPERTY IS FORBIDDEN UNTIL THE DEED IS RECORDED WITH THE SULLIVAN COUNTY CLERK CONVEYING TITLE TO THE PURCHASER. TITLE VESTS UPON THE RECORDING OF THE DEED. It is agreed between the County and the purchaser that delivery and acceptance of the deed occurs upon recording of the deed. The quitclaim deed will be issued solely in the name of the successful purchaser and cannot be changed to another party.

30. A quitclaim deed issued as a result of the auction shall contain the following provisions: (a) "Nothing contained in any description herein is intended to convey more than the assessed owner owned at the time of the levy of the tax, the non-payment of which resulted in the tax sale. There is no representation as to the extent of the acreage conveyed herein; (b) Excepting and reserving for highway purposes a strip of land parallel to and extending twenty-five (25') feet from the center line of any county road abutting the premises conveyed and excepting and reserving all the right, title and interest of the County of Sullivan in and to any portion or interest of the lands being conveyed, which interest was heretofore acquired other than pursuant to the provisions of Real Property Tax Law of the State of New York; (c) If the lands being conveyed herein (by the County of Sullivan) do not comply with local zoning ordinances and/or are not suitable for construction of a conventional water and/or septic system and are contiguous with lands owned by the party of the second part, the lands described herein shall not be conveyed without also simultaneously conveying the contiguous lands owned by the party of the second part to the same grantee, unless the planning board approves the sale in a different configuration. This restriction will run with the land. Whenever required, the abandonment provisions of the real property tax law shall be used (Section 560 RPTL); (d) If the former owner is the grantee herein, or acquire the property within thirty-six (36) months subsequent to the date of the auction, then all liens that were of record when the County took title will thereby be reinstated, automatically by operation of law".

31. Evictions, if necessary, are solely the responsibility of the successful purchaser.

32. The successful purchaser on each auction parcel must remove the auction sign within seven (7) days after the recording of the deed.

33. By acknowledging and executing these Terms & Conditions, the bidder certifies that he/she is not acting on behalf of the former owner(s) of the property against whom Sullivan County foreclosed and has no intent to defraud Sullivan County of the unpaid taxes, assessment, penalties and charges which have been levied against the property. The purchaser agrees that neither he/she nor his/her assigns shall convey the property to the former owner(s) against whom Sullivan County foreclosed within thirty-six (36) months subsequent to the date of the auction. If such conveyance occurs, the purchaser understands that he/she may be found to have committed fraud, and/or intent to defraud, and will be liable for any deficiency between the purchase price at auction and such sums as may be owed to Sullivan County and consents to immediate entry of a judgment by Sullivan County for said amounts (A copy of the within Terms and Conditions executed by the bidder/purchaser shall be attached to and warrant the filling of an Affidavit of Confession of Judgment.)

34. Bidder gives permission for Auctioneer and those acting pursuant to its authority to photograph, video tape, or use any other electronic method of recording my likeness and/or voice to be used at the Auctioneer's discretion in auction-related publications and/or websites.

A new state law has imposed new requirements for certain real estate transfer tax filings. Effective September 13, 2019, when a limited liability company (LLC) is the grantor or grantee in a deed transfer of a one- to four-family residence or a residential condominium, the following forms cannot be accepted for filing unless accompanied by documentation that identifies the names and business addresses of all members, managers and other authorized persons of the LLC:

The required documentation must include a list of all members, managers and other authorized persons of the LLC. If any member of the LLC is itself an LLC or other business entity, the names and addresses of the shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and/or partners of that LLC or other business entity must also be provided until ultimate ownership by natural persons is disclosed.

The documentation should include the name, business address and taxpayer identification number for each individual and entity. In addition, documentation should demonstrate that 100% of the ownership of each entity has been reported.

Authorized person means a person, whether or not a member, who is authorized by the operating agreement, or otherwise, to act on behalf of an LLC or foreign LLC.

A natural person does not include a corporation or partnership, natural person(s) operating a business under a d/b/a (doing business as), an estate (such as the estate of a bankrupt or deceased person), or a trust.

Form TP-584 (7/19) and Form TP-584-NYC (7/19) and their corresponding instructions will be revised to instruct filers of this new requirement. However, in the meantime, the required documentation should be included as an attachment to the existing form.

New York State Disclosure Form for Buyer and Seller

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

New York State law requires real estate licensees who are acting as agents of buyers or sellers of property to advise the potential buyers or sellers with whom they work of the nature of their agency relationship and the rights and obligations it creates. This disclosure will help you to make informed choices about your relationship with the real estate broker and its sales agents.

Throughout the transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form. The law may require each agent assisting in the transaction to present you with this disclosure form. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate.

If you need legal, tax or other advice, consult with a professional in that field.

Disclosure Regarding Real Estate Agency Relationships

Seller's Agent

A seller's agent is an agent who is engaged by a seller to represent the seller's interests. The seller's agent does this by securing a buyer for the seller's home at a price and on terms acceptable to the seller. A seller's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the seller: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A seller's agent does not represent the interests of the buyer. The obligations of a seller's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the seller. In dealings with the buyer, a seller's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of property, except as otherwise provided by law.

Buyer's Agent

A buyer's agent is an agent who is engaged by a buyer to represent the buyer's interest. The buyer's agent does this by negotiating the purchase of a home at a price and on terms acceptable to the buyer. A buyer's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the buyer: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A buyer's agent does not represent the interest of the seller. The obligations of a buyer's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the buyer. In dealings with the seller, a buyer's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the buyer's ability and/or willingness to perform a contract to acquire seller's property that are not inconsistent with the agent's fiduciary duties to the buyer.

Broker's Agents

A broker's agent is an agent that cooperates or is engaged by a listing agent or a buyer's agent (but does not work for the same firm as the listing agent or buyer's agent) to assist the listing agent or buyer's agent in locating a property to sell or buy, respectively, for the listing agent's seller or the buyer agent's buyer. The broker's agent does not have a direct relationship with the buyer or seller and the buyer or seller cannot provide instructions or direction directly to the broker's agent. The buyer and the seller therefore do not have vicarious liability for the acts of the broker's agent. The listing agent or buyer's agent do provide direction and instruction to the broker's agent and therefore the listing agent or buyer's agent will have liability for the acts of the broker's agent.

Dual Agent

A real estate broker may represent both the buyer and the seller if both the buyer and seller give their informed consent in writing. In such a dual agency situation, the agent will not be able to provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer and seller. The obligations of an agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent, and the buyer and seller. An agent acting as a dual agent must explain carefully to both the buyer and seller that the agent is acting for the other party as well. The agent should also explain the possible effects of dual representation, including that by consenting to the dual agency relationship the buyer and seller are giving up their right to undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship before agreeing to such representation. A seller or buyer may provide advance informed consent to dual agency by indicating the same on this form.

Dual Agent with Designated Sales Agents

If the buyer and seller provide their informed consent in writing, the principals and the real estate broker who represents both parties as a dual agent may designate a sales agent to represent the buyer and another sales agent to represent the seller. A sales agent works under the supervision of the real estate broker. With the informed consent of the buyer and the seller in writing, the designated sales agent for the buyer will function as the buyer's agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the buyer and the designated sales agent for the seller will function as the seller's agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the seller in the negotiations between the buyer and seller. A designated sales agent cannot provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the landlord or tenant. A designated sales agent cannot provide full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer or seller. The designated sales agent must explain that like the dual agent under whose supervision they function, they cannot provide undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship with designated sales agents before agreeing to such representation. A seller or buyer provide advance informed consent to dual agency with designated sales agents by indicating the same on this form.
